

Scott Schubert
CEO
AMTdirect

Scott is President, Chief Executive Officer and a principal of AMTdirect, which he co-founded with his brother, Dan in 1996.

With over fifteen years in the commercial real estate industry and significant technical experience, Scott is the principal architect for technology initiatives, research and development at AMTdirect and plays a key role in overseeing the corporate finances and sales. Scott has proven experience in the development, design and implementation of complex technologies involved in managing diverse real estate holdings.

Under Scott's leadership, AMTdirect has created one of the industry's most thorough and flexible lease administration systems! His passion to innovate and exceed customers' expectations has provided AMTdirect's clients with easy-to-use solutions that maximize efficiency and profits.

Prior to working in the commercial real estate industry, Scott worked in public accounting providing financial and taxation consulting services for a large, privately-held, international accounting firm. Scott holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting from the University of North Carolina, Asheville and is a Certified Public Accountant of North Carolina.

When Scott is not working, you will find him heading out to a softball game; working out in the gym; enjoying time with his wife Egle. Scott's love of family carries over to his "AMTdirect family." AMTdirect management supports an open, diverse, flexible work environment and values functional and technical skills. AMTdirect rewards individuals and teams, while focusing on continued company success!
